05-06 DECEMBER 2024

Meeting healthcare needs through nurse education in Europe

Répondre aux besoins de santé par la formation infirmière en Europe

The health needs of today's and tomorrow's populations:
How will/should nurse education evolve in Europe?
And what are the prospects for career development?

Les besoins en santé des populations d'aujourd'hui et de demain : Comment la formation infirmière va-t-elle/doit-elle évoluer en Europe ? Et quelles perspectives d'évolution de carrières ?

/ Main Objective

To consider innovative ways to improve nursing education in Europe to answer the health need of the population, as part of a continuum of initial and continuing training. To continue to build up a permanent network of people and experts in nursing education who are thinking about it and making proposals within their institution and at national and international level.

/ Specific objectives

- To identify the strengths and weaknesses of our current nursing education systems
- To describe and discuss the challenges and opportunities for developing nursing education
- To share the experiences of countries that have changed or upgraded nursing education to EQF level 6
- To develop a case for a clear continuum of nursing education in Europe
- To develop a network of partners in initial and continuing nursing education to pursue the discussion
- To discuss how innovation in health and education system may impact nurse educators' education and also the professional careers of nurses
- To reach a consensus on recommendations to publish a 'FINE Luxembourg declaration for the future of nursing education in Europe'

/ Objectif principal

Examiner les pistes d'innovation afin d'améliorer la formation infirmière en Europe pour répondre aux besoins en santé des populations, dans un continuum de formation initiale et continue. Continuer à construire un réseau permanent de personnes et d'experts dans la formation infirmière qui y réfléchissent et qui sont force de propositions dans leur institution et aux niveaux national et international.

/ Objectifs spécifiques

- Identifier les forces et les faiblesses de nos systèmes de formation infirmière actuels
- Décrire et discuter les défis et les opportunités pour faire évoluer la formation infirmière
- Partager les expériences des pays qui ont modifié ou fait évoluer la formation infirmière au niveau 6 du CEC
- Concevoir un argumentaire en faveur d'un continuum clair de formation infirmière en Europe
- Développer un réseau de partenaires en formation infirmière initiale et continue pour poursuivre les discussions
- Discuter de l'influence de l'innovation sur la formation des enseignants en sciences infirmières et sur la carrière des infirmières
- Aboutir de manière consensuelle à des recommandations pour publier une «FINE Déclaration de Luxembourg pour l'avenir de la formation infirmière en Europe»
